Picture this: effortlessly manage your processes and transactions, craft personalized Pathways, assign tasks seamlessly, and effortlessly track progress. Phundex ensures your inbox isn't cluttered with unnecessary distractions, letting you channel your energy where it counts.

Now, here's the kicker for Managers – we get it. You don't want to drown in a flood of notifications. That's why, unlike default setups, we've left the power in your hands. No more one-size-fits-all disruptions. Your preferences, your way.

Launching in 2024, Phundex introduces a groundbreaking feature - customizable notification preferences! Brace yourself for the freedom to choose between in-app alerts or classic email notifications. The cherry on top? Tailor when, what, and how often you receive them.

In-App Notifications: For those who prefer staying within the Phundex realm, our in-app notifications keep you updated without leaving the platform. A sleek notification button next to your profile beckons, showcasing your unread updates. Click, explore, and watch your notifications disappear once you've caught up, keeping your workspace clutter-free.

Email Notifications: For the traditionalists who like it delivered to the inbox, Phundex's email notifications are here to impress. Handpick events to be emailed about, and dictate when these notifications roll in - daily, weekly, or monthly. Set your preferred time, ensuring your inbox aligns perfectly with your schedule. Heading out for a break? No worries. Pause your emails, and Phundex will patiently await your return.

And that's not all, folks!

More Features:

- Ample Room for Comments: We've expanded the space for comments, so you can share more insights regarding assigned tasks.
- Pre-populated URLs: Link external resources or documents directly to your tasks, making collaboration smoother than ever.
- Enhanced Team Member information: we've added more details about Team Members so it's easier to allocate Tasks (and add new Team Members) all in one spot.

We hope you'll love these new features as much as we do. We're committed to enhancing your Phundex experience. Your feedback fuels our drive to make Phundex the ultimate platform for your business needs. Questions or suggestions? Reach out – we're all ears!
